Shri Prabhakar Gorakh, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Advocate for respondent Nos. 1 to 3.

Shri Sushil Dubey, counsel for respondent No.4.

Heard.

The petitioner who is a holder of a regular permit for Baima to Chirmiri route has approached this Court for issuance of an appropriate writ, direction or order commanding the opposite parties i.e., the State and its functionaries to take action against the respondent Nos. 4 to 7 who are illegally plying passenger buses bearing registration No. MP 27/B/2240 and MP 27/B/1009 without any permit and without payment of tax. Subsequent to filing of this writ petition as appears from the record, vehicle No.MP 27/B/2240 which was in fact plying without any permit, has been seized. As regards the vehicle MP 27/B/1009, it is the case of the State that it is running on a regular permit, which has been granted to respondent No.4 Vikash Shrivastava.

In this view of the matter, no further action is called for in this writ petition, which stands disposed of accordingly.
